DELEGATION	Jan Sonnenberg Ms. Sonnenberg presented a brief. She thinks advertisers should pay for graduate photos. Councillor Sakundiak said that Council will have a 37” TV screen in the window of Town Office updating information for the population. Ms. Sonnenberg would like a job description of the Sentinel editor. Councillor Skjaveland said the Town should ask taxpayers if they would like to keep the Sentinel . Mayor Lagace said that there is no cost for ‘Letters to the Editor’ in the Sentinel .

DELEGATION	Dr. David Leonard, Provincial Historian, and Grant Berg Dr. Leonard said that Sexsmith was the ‘grain capital of the British Empire’. It was the last area of North America given over to large tracts for farming. It is the largest area per capita for grain farming. Sexsmith is pictured on the Municipal brochure for provincial grants. David Link, Assistant Deputy Minister of Heritage, reported to Dr. Leonard if owner is not in favour of designation, it is not approved but Sexsmith is an exception. Sexsmith could get $50,000, twice a year for a total of $100,000. If it is a large project – example painting the elevators – the Town could do painting in stages. The two elevators by the train station are most important. The elevators have elements of social stability.

Councillor Siggelkow said that the Town can put labour or supplies in lieu as their part of matching grant money.

Councillor Skjaveland stated that he doesn’t think that we should use taxpayer’s money for the elevators.

Dr. Leonard said that the Town can break it down into projects – paint one side or look after the foundation. There are other grants such as community facility enhancement grants. Grants can be carried on to another year. The elevators present a legacy, a focal point of our Town. Mr. Berg wants to go to the County for the funding but he needs the Town to support the elevators. The museum would still work on supporting the grant and Peace River Seeds are still interested in renting the elevators in which funds would be put towards the grants.

Ms. Sonnenberg thinks Councillors should make their own decisions on things and agrees that the elevators should be kept.

Mr. Heyn thinks there are other areas that need funding but the elevators are a feature of Sexsmith.

Ms. Rycroft thinks Council and the Museum Society should meet with Mel Knight. The CAO will arrange a meeting.

Councillor Sparks asked if the September first application will be guaranteed. Dr. Leonard said that it is not guaranteed but Sexsmith has never been turned down. CEP money is upfront and the Museum grants are after the project is done.

Thanks around and then delegation left Council Chambers at 7:50 p.m.

Mayor declared a 5-minute break at 7:50 p.m.
